Carol Prentiss has received numerous national awards for her lifetime achievement in community involvement, by serving as chairman at many of the Mid-South's largest and respected organizations, including child advocacy. She was selected as one of the "50 Women Who Make A Difference in the Mid-South." Carol is now serving on the Tennessee Arts Commission, helping promote the arts and culture in TN. Carol Prentiss' induction will take place at a later tea.

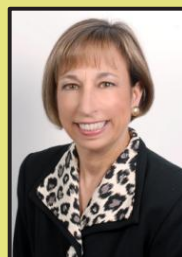

Carol Prentiss, our
2011 Grande Dame

Mayor AC Wharton, has proudly served Memphis nearly 40 years and it is a privilege to have him personally crown Cenyah as Princess 2011 for Tiara Tea Society. Mayor Wharton has served as Executive Director of Memphis Area Legal Services, Chief Shelby County Public Defender, Shelby County Mayor and currently, as Memphis City Mayor.

Our speaker, Supreme Court Justice Janice Holder, is active in civic and professional activities and organizations, including the International Women's Forum, for which she serves as the Memphis Chair for the Tennessee Chapter and the Memphis Council for International Visitors. She has served as a volunteer tutor for the Memphis Literacy Council and on the State Coordinating Council for the Tennessee Task Force Against Domestic Violence.

About this Event

Our very special little girl this year is a native Memphian, Cenyah Dotson. Cenyah was just a few months old when she was seriously wounded at the scene of a brutally violent crime in Memphis, in March of 2008.

The baby girl is now a three year old little lady. She loves to wear ruffles and clomp around the house in her grandmother's high heels. Definitely a Tiara Tea lady! Our esteemed keynote speaker is Tennessee Supreme Court Justice, Janice Holder. The Honorable Mayor Wharton will crown Cenyah personally. This event is a new and healing start for Cenyah Dotson, her family and we hope, for the City of Memphis. We will be celebrating this amazing little survivor and raising funds for possible trauma therapy and rehabilitation for a deeply scarred leg. Please join us in this beautiful and positive occasion and help us sponsor this child. As always, we thank you for continuing to celebrate the gifts of phenomenal women through your support!

Continued blessings,

- Eva Lynn Bishop
